Pitts Says Anderson Asked He Sign 'No Intent' Letter In Governor's Race

By RICHARD WILSON, Managing Editor

An accusation that the Campus Coordinator, Students for Breathitt, attempted to coerce a Student Congress presidential nominee "to take no part, or support no candidate, in the May gubernatorial primary," was leveled yesterday.

Jim Pitts, nominated for the SC presidency at the constitutionally questionable meeting of April 18, stated he was given a letter by Jerry Anderson, co-ordinator of the campus sup-porters of gubernatorial candidate Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt, and told it would be advantageous to sign the letter.

He added he was told failure to sign the letter could possibly cost him the election.

The letter, dated April 24, was, according to Pitts, written by Anderson, but was addressed to Anderson as being from Pitts.

Pitts said he regretted having to make this matter public. However, he added, that as this was a student election, the stu-dents have a right to know all of the events which have taken place with reference to the constitutionally questioned election.

Contacted yesetrday. Anderson said he had written and delivered the letter but said the purpose of it was "merely to satisfy myself that Pitts had no intention of using his position, if elected, to endorse A. B. 'Happy' Chandler, for governor,"

Anderson further stated that in a private conversation Pitts had told him that although he had a personal preference for Chandler over Breathitt in the May 28th primary, he had neither in writing or verbally, made this preference public.

"In a private conversation, Pitts had given me his word that he wished to dispel a campus rumor that the SC election had any political connotations," Anderson said.
"He stated the Democratic gubernatorial primary was of no consequence in the election. My letter was merely to bring about a clarification of something which had been stated in pri-

Anderson denied he told Pitts that it would be to his advantage to sign the letter or possibly sacrifice winning the election.

Pits asserted the letter in question was given to him by Anderson in the Student Union grill Tuesday, April 23. Pitts stated he told Anderson he would have to think over the feasibility of signing the letter. He said he then left the SUB and went immediately to the dean of men's office where he told Assistant Dean of Men Fred Strache what had happened.

"I asked Dean Strache for his advice in the matter," stated Pitts.

Strache stated yesterday he had advised Pitts not to sign the letter but to seek further advice. He suggested Pitts see Professor J. E. Reeves, advisor of the campus Young Democrats Club, and Dr. Gifford Blyton, Student Congress Parliamentarian.

Reeves stated Pitts had brought the letter to him and asked his advice. He said he suggested, and Pitts agreed, that the letter should not be made public. but that he, Pitts, should wait for the outcome of the specially called Student Congress meeting of April 29.

That meeting, called by SC President Raleigh Lane, was dis-missed for lack of a quorum.

Asked yesterday for his reaction to the incident, Reeves, re-plied: "At the time the letter was given to Pitts, some of the Student Congress leaders were supporting Breathitt and were publicly participating in the gubernatorial campaian." He said he thought it unfair to ask a candidate who apparently supported Chandler to make a written statement or commitment not to participate in the primary in any way.

Put said he questioned recent endersements of Breathitt by the property SC President Ruleigh Lane. In a picture and story, appearing separately in local pa-pers, Lane was among student leaders who privately endorsed Breathat. Lane has stated that such endersement in no way means he also represents the feeling of the organization which he heads, but is morely his private preference.

Pitt said he feels Lane has been doing the very same thing which Anderson seemingly is try-ing to prevent through getting him to sign a letter of "no in-ter," of a subschafornal endorse-ment" if elected.

In summary, the controversy boils down to this:

On the one side Pitts and his

The New York Times

Discomaging as the outlook for Letter race relations sometimes seems to be, the fact is that progress continues to be made on many fronts. One of the most interesting examples, and by no means the least significant. is in college athletics in the Deep South, where the "color line" has been all but sacrosanct.

A few weeks ago Mississippi State University sent a team to play in the national collegiate basketball championships against teams fielding Negro boys-the first break with the "all white" tradition in the history of that institution. Now there are reports of increasing pressure at the University of Kentucky to desegregate that school's athletic team, even if it means leaving the powerful Southeastern Conference, in which competition is traditionally snow white.

If the university is to live up its moral obligation and make significant progress as a major institution," says the Kentucky campus newspaper, "it must divorce itsell from the segregation policy which dominates the Sontheastern Conference"-a thought also expressed by the highly respected Lonisville Courier-Journal when it says: "This is the time for the UK to take the lead in breaking down segregation in the Southeastern Conference.

A few ontfielders like Willie Mays, a few centers like Bill Russell, a few fullbacks like Iim Brown-who knows what tremendous champions might come out of the Southeast, with such recrnits to boild upon, and what quiet miracles might be worked in better race relations:

Students Voice Opinion On SC Elections

Supports Pitts

To The Editor:

It is my firm belief that with Mr. Pitts' election this campus will see the end of the gross misuse of this effice that has occurred during the past administration. I promise to do everything in my power to insure that Mr. Lane's attempts to perpetuate himself in an office that he has shamed will not be successful.

Mr. Lane has attempted to use his office as a steppingstone into state politics and in this effort has dragged the mire of state politics into campus elections.

Mr. Lane, in the meeting of the 29th of April, had the audacity to criticize the members of Student Congress and the candidates for election because there was not a quormu present. Mr. Lane all the while knew there was not quorum present because there had been a strong campaign conducted by one of the officers of Student Congress to keep the representatives at home.

For these reasons, I deem it my duty and my privilege to accept the itien of campaign manage Mr. Litts.

Both the office holders and "Progressive" members of the present Student Congress have been total failnres in their roles as campus leaders, and there is no indication that the situation shall improve next year, or any year, so long as Student Congress continues in its present form. I think it would be better to have nothing than to continue this degrading mockery. # Musical Instruments Vary Around The World

When it's time to strike up the band, the Japanese sometimes strum a thirteen-stringed lute. Indian musicians play a double oboe, and Mexican Chinantee tribesmen make music on a one-stringed instroment resembling a hunter's bow-except that it's 25 feet long.

A Finnish folk singer may be plucking a kantele, the zither-like, 30-stringed instrument that has been traditional in his country for 2,000 years. Legend says was first made from the jaws

And did you know that the organ is technically classified as a wind instrument? Or that originated as far back as 300 B.C.? An ingenious inventor with the unpronounceable name Ktsebios of Alexandria invented the hydraulos, in which water pressure was used to regulate the supply of wind for the pipes. Because even in this primitive form it had a powerful sound, the early organ was a favorite in Roman amphitheaters.

The organ didn't acquire a keyboard till the 13th century, or pedals until the 19th. Today, these are the only moving parts in the most modern organs. Magnavox has devised a tubeles, metorless electronic organ, engineered with the "space age" techniques of solid state circuity. (EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the entire text of the questioned letter given to Jim Pins by Jerry Anderson. Anderson requested that Pitts sign and return the letter to him. Pitts refused to sign this letter.)

Lexington, Kentucky April 24, 1963

Mr. Jerry Anderson Campus Coordinator UK Students For Breathitt

Dear Jerry:

As you are aware, I am a candidate for President of the Student Congress in the election to be held this week.

I have been told that there have been rumors to the effect that my candidacy is a part of a plan by students active in the Democratic gubernatorial campaign to elect me and thereafter have me publicly announce my support for one of the gubernatorial candidates. I want to dispell that rumor.

Since the Student Congress election is being held this spring shortly before the Democratic primary on May 28th, it is all the more important that state politics not be injected into our elections. Personally, I believe that the President of the Student Congress who is to be elected this week should avow non-participation in the Democratic governor's primary.

I think that the consequences of injection of state politics into cur Student Congress election would blur the purpose for which that election is held, namely the selection of the most qualified student to take charge of our student government at the University next year. Injection of state politics into the Student Congress election would pit those students who favor Mr. Chandier against those students who favor Mr. Breathitt, with each side exerting every effort to mobilize students sharing their sentiments recording the ubernatorial candidates to vote that preference in our Student Congress election.

For these reason . I can honestly and plandy promine, with my honor at stake, that I is either plan to, nor shall, take any part in the Democratic governor's primary eather before or after the Student Congress election. Specifically, I promise you had all of the their tudents on this compast regardless of their view regardless the Democratic subgruatorial primary, that I shall not endor e any candillate for the Demberatic nomination for governor.

It is my understanding that this statement addressed to you is given as assurance of my intention to take no part in the Democratic primary, directly or indirectly, and that this statement will not be published by you or any other person except in the event I break pledge of non-participation to which I have below affixed my
